I'll add a [REDACTED] blurb. Not sure if [REDACTED] is worth it. We are sending a letter out to ask for a meeting where we'll hammer out the details of what we need to sunset the [REDACTED] AO, but that won't happen until 30 to 60 days after they sign the FFA which Brian is working on now and for which we just sent him bullet points for our piece of it. That said, I think it's months away from being signed because so many different divisions have to review it including a couple at HQ. So thinking to wait on a blurb until that's closer to being a thing otherwise I'll have to say "no change" for like five months. ;o)

This is the first of this for the new RA, so feel free to give a little more history. Below are the blurbs for [REDACTED] and CRW from last month. Can you send me an update by 10/28? Does [REDACTED] merit a blurb in light of the latest? What about the latest in [REDACTED] Thanks.
